evening. The Sox started off with a five run lead, which they held until the seventh, when Peck fired a homer with Baumann on base. However, the White Sox still were three to the good when the Yank cripples went to bat in the ninth, but in this round a full house was on and two were out when Rube Oldring hit a homer. The Yanks won, 8 to 6, and were as happy as a bunch of collegians winning their hig game after the gians winning their big game after the odds were 10 to 1 on their opponents. The exhibition of gameness put up by the Yanks was delightful, and despite the team's adversities the club will stick around the top if to-day's game is any cample of what the Yankees still have in nock. No team ever looked more hope-sely beaten than New York to-day, yet ever for a moment did the Yanks give

With Bob Shawkey ready to go back with son Snawkey ready to go back at the Sox to-morrow, as he only worked an inning here, the Yankees are confident they can leave here with an even break. They needed to-day's game to remain in the lead, as Boston again beat the faltering Cleveland Indians.

Russell Has Wild Spell.

When Allen Russell can control his spitter he is one of the most dazzling pitching youths in the game, but when Allen has no control he is as wild and woolly as any pitching kid in Connie Mack's stable. Allen had one of those wild spells to-day, and the Sox used his five passes and two wild pitches in addition to some well placed hits in compiling five runs. Maisel batted for Russelling five runs. piling five runs. Maisel batted for Russell in the fifth, it being the first time Fritz has been in a game since he broke his collarbone on the Polo Grounds on May 15. Love relieved Russell and Bob Shawkey blotted out the Sox three in a row in the ninth.

Jim Scott started for the Rowlanders,

O'Neill and Walker Carry Off Slugging Honors—Band's Concert Delays Game.

CLEVELAND, July 27-(American).-In a game that lasted almost three hours Boston defeated Cleveland, 7 to 6, today. The Red Sox bunched their hits with Cleveland's errors.

After the second inning the superpass couldn't seem to do anything with Doak. Two widely separated infield hits were all the Dodgers were able to harvest off Willie's moist delivery in the third, fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh innings. It did look as if Doak had the Dodgers' number.

After a hard inning of the game in Chicago on July 18, with the score a tie at 4 to 4 and Brooklyn pointing to an almost certain victory, having men on second and third, none out and three balls on the batter, Tinker's delaying tactutes forced Byron to forfeit the game to Brooklyn. Tinker's refusal to leave the field at the order of Clupire Byron forced the umpire to forfeit the game.

Boston, July 27—(National).—Chicago and Boston played a 2 to 2 tie today, the game being called in the leleventh inning on account of darkness. The Cubs scored their two runs in the first on a base on balls, a double by Zimmerman and a single by Kelly.

Boston scored one in the third on a base on balls, a hit and a sacrifice fly, and tied it up in the ninth on errors by

Take Second Game of Series by Stoke Harmong and the hands farmed out by McGraw last spring. Ralph Sharman, sent to Memphis, has been demoted to Galveston, while Chick Farrell, who went to Roches, ter. has gone down to Utica.

The need for a man like Wade Killifer may crop up any day. Wade is not the best hitter in the world, but he's pretty reliable. It was rather tragic for Wade, after all his "camping out," that he should be released just when traded to the best conditional between the long city. Killifer was not even by in Chicago until he got notice of his ultimate destination. And now he goes to Louisville to join Emilio Palmero, Lew Wendell and Rube Schauer in the torrid zone of Kentucky.

Wallace's Ridgewood Grounds, Halsey atreet and Wyckoff avenue, Brooklyn, will be the scene of a splendid double header this Sunday, with the crack Royal Giants featured in both games. In the first tilt the Royals will clash with the Highbridge nine and in the final game the Bushwicks will be the opponents of the colored team. The Highbridge team will have its star hurler, Wernecke, on the firing line. Wernecke last Sunday beat the Cuban Stars. He has a fine strikeout record. He whiffed sixteen Lincoln Stars, twelve Lincoln Giants and ten Cubans in three successive weeks. Lefty Harvey will oppose him.

But yesterday Herzog took his place in the sun, and let it bask all over him. Herzog did everything to his former Cincinnati serfs yesterday except to soak them on the conk with his bat. He was concerned in all four New York runs, and by as grand a defensive game as any shortstop has played in this county in many moons blocked off about eight Ohio runs. Prior to Herzog joining the Giants the locals had dropped their entire eight extra inning games on the sun and the populace out among the golden cornfields of Ohio, where Miller Huggins spent his happy boyhood days.

Anyhow, Miller swapped nags when right in the middle of the river at Ebbets Field yesterday and Your Uncle Wilbert Robinson's sassy Superbast thereby won a game.

You can write home to the old folk that those demon Dodgers conquered the Cardinals, 4 to 2. And as alluded to a parasang dead astern, you can add in the postscript that it might not have been, only for Miller Huggins's trading of equines before he was across the brook.

TRENTONS IN HARLEM.

The Trenton nine, which has not played on a local diamond this season, will make its Harlem debut this Sunday in a game with the Lincoln Giants at Olympic Field, 135th street and Fifth avenue. The game will be the feature of a double header, the first tilt of which will bring together the Department of Street Cleaning nine and Lincoln Giants. The Trentons last were seen in Harlem a year ago when they played the Lincolns two games and lost both through late railies by the home team. The team is an exceptionally fast one. A large delegation of D. S. C. employees will accompany their team to the Harlem pasture.
